UNU-GEST is approaching institutions, government ministries and agencies, and civil society organizations working in the field of gender equality, inviting them to nominate and encourage promising young professionals to apply for fellowships in the 2019 Post-Graduate Diploma Programme in International Gender Studies in Iceland. The 2019 programme will run from the 8th of January until the 24th of May 2019 in Reykjavík, Iceland.

In the past, a number of fellows from 17 different countries have attended the programme. Selection of the fellows is based on the following criteria. The candidate must:

- Have at least one university degree
- Have at least 2 years of experience related to his or her chosen theme in the UNU-GEST Programme
- Be a young professional (not above 35 years of age)
- Be able to communicate in English (speak, read and write)

To nominate candidates, organisations are invited to submit nominations for fellowship through our website. After this nomination has been reviewed, nominees will be asked to submit a personal application to UNU-GEST. Upon initial screening, personal interviews are held with potential candidates. Fellowships are all-inclusive and cover travel expenses, campus housing, clothes allowance, visa and per diem cost during the five month period, in addition to the academic programme. UNU-GEST offers limited number of fully funded fellowships but also seeks co-sponsorship from organizations, where full or partial costs for fellows (travel and accommodation) are covered by the nominating organization. Deadline for applications for scholarships is 30 May 2018. The study programme (30 ECTS) consists of six modules in spring semester 2019, thereof two elective modules:

- Module 1 • THEORIES AND CONCEPTS •
- Module 2 • PRACTICAL TOOLS FOR GENDER SENSITIVE PROJECTS •
- Module 3A • HEALTH, VIOLENCE AND BODILY VIOLENCE •
- Module 3B • GENDER AND EDUCATION •
- Module 4A • GENDER, PEACE AND SECURITY •
- Module 4B • GENDER AND THE LABOUR MARKET •
- Module 5 • GENDER, ENVIRONMENT AND CLIMATE CHANGE •
- Module 6 • APPLIED FINAL PROJECT •

UNU-GEST, in co-operation with the University of Iceland, conducts an annual 20-week (January–May) postgraduate diploma programme (30 ECTS) in Iceland. The programme focuses on the structures and mechanisms necessary to promote gender equality and advance women’s empowerment.

The target group are professionals from developing countries and post-conflict societies working for government ministries and agencies, as well as professionals working for civil society organizations and educational institutes. Prospective candidates are selected in cooperation with institutions and organisations identified as having key roles in promoting gender equality.

Teaching staff consists of academics, specialists and practitioners, and renowned international lecturers contribute to the Programme each year.

Examples of final assignments by alumni fellows

Socio-economic Empowerment of Women Through Agroforestry in Lira and Pader districts, Uganda (Hellen Nansikombi, 2014)
The project proposal aims to address the gender gap in agroforestry programs to enhance women’s participation. Increased dependence on natural resources as a primary source of livelihood has led to environmental degradation in Uganda which adversely affects food security, income and livelihoods of local communities. Provision of credit to women, community mobilization, and awareness raising is proposed to promote full participation of men as well as women in agroforestry.

Strengthening GBV Preparedness and Prevention in Refugee Camps, Palestine (Toni Bero, 2015)
A multi-sectoral approach is taken to a multi-sectoral approach to tackle gender-based violence (GBV) within refugee populations by strengthening GBV preparedness and prevention in emergency situations. The project applies a results based framework to strengthen organizational capacity and participation of target communities and beneficiaries.

Gendered Value Chain Analysis of Mangoes in Malawi (Nthamyo Thandie Mbeye, 2016)
The project proposal lays the foundation for future investment and interventions in the mango sub-sector and offers a gendered analysis of the mango value chain in Malawi. A variety of gender related issues are identified at each stage of the mango value chain, and strategies to be taken into consideration when improving and upgrading a mango value chain.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is the Programme for me?
Yes, if you are a young professional who possess good English skills and have an undergraduate degree, then you fulfill the requirements for the Programme. However, you also need to be passionate about gender equality and eager to become a leader for change, and willing to positively contribute to a dynamic group in an enriching learning environment. Your family and work circumstances need to allow for you staying abroad from January through May 2019.

Who covers the costs?
The funding of the diploma programme is based on scholarships that are either: 1) funded directly by the UNU-GEST programme or 2) by funding agencies, such as development agencies and other development partners, embassies and governments. The scholarships are all-inclusive and cover all travel costs for fellows, housing on campus, clothes allowance and per-diem during the five month period, in addition to educational facilities, learning material and lessons.

How do I apply?
Candidates shall be nominated by an institute or organisation in which they are employed by or by an agency sponsoring their studies in Iceland. Direct applications from prospective fellows are not accepted. Once nominated, candidates are offered to submit an application form and other required documentation. Those fulfilling programme requirements will be invited to an interview with UNU-GEST staff.

How do I apply my learning in the future?
Candidates come from array of different sectors each year, which adds to the diversity and dynamic of group work. The focus is very practical and you will acquire diverse skills applicable in different settings, such as project management, public speaking, academic writing, monitoring and evaluation, project proposal writing, innovation, leadership and analytical skills. You will learn methods and gain practical tools to address gender inequality in different contexts. Further, you will understand gender dynamics in different settings and have more in-depth knowledge of certain issues, such as gender-based violence, education, environment, gender-responsive budgeting, security and health.
